Why You Should Belong

There are many golf organizations and associations, but the Buckeye Golf Association is the only association that is the voice for all Ohio golf course operators, managers, and owners. The Buckeye Golf Association serves exclusively to promote, protect and educate its members, who range from driving ranges to large resorts.

Your dues are based on the size of your operation. Membership dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution, but may be deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense.

The Buckeye Golf Association is dedicated to helping you and your business. Whether it's educational programs, networking opportunities, cost saving programs, or protecting your business at the state capital, we're working for you every day.
